Olsen Sees Fair Before Return To Y

Bruce L. Olsen, ASBYU President, returned to the BYU Campus this week after a trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in a fall conference held for select college and university students with President Lyndon B. Johnson.

THE WEEK and visit included conference with the President and some of his aides, a reception, luncheon, and a party hosted by the President's daughter Lynda Bird Johnson.

An important sideline to the conference for Mr. Olsen and other representatives from the western area when they accidently met Janie Gerrard, a BYU Graduate who is now serving as secretary to the President Press Secretary, George Reedy.

JAMES GERRARD added much truth to the trip by being able to answer our questions concerning the people, places, and events in Washington, said Mr. Olsen. While at the conference President Johnson introduced to the 200 college visitors a new program he had the White House Fellows. Under this program a committee made up of retired Americans will select 15 college student to serve as aides to various White House officials.

THEIR PERIOD of internment will be 15 months with the interns working with the next President. Those interested in will be open to both men and women between the ages of 21-32.

After the conference, which was held on Saturday, Mr. Olsen and Ken Rich, Studentbody President at Utah State University, participated in a press conference sessions of the Church of Jesus Christ and Latter-day Saints and on Monday they flew New York to tour the World Fair.

Possil Symposium Schedules Speaker

Sponsored by the University's College of Physical and Engineering Sciences is sponsoring the two day meeting to acquaint fossil hydrocarbons from the Uinta Basin States.

FOSSIL HYDROCARBONS include coal, oil, shale, bituminous sands, natural gas, gas crudes, petroleum and gas.

Speed of the first session will be utilizing fossil hydrocarbons in industry and commerce as well deal with such topics as current mining practices of area deposits, improvement of deposits, economic potential of each and natural gas industry in Utah and new developments for hydrocarbon processing.

THE PROFESSIONAL societies in Utah and the intermountain area are participating in the conference, including the University of Utah, Brigham Young University, Salt Lake Section of the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical, and Petroleum Engineering at BYU, are the general sponsor of the meetings.

Wilkinson - Moss To Clash In Debate

A debate between the Utah candidates for United States Senate will be held in the Smith Fieldhouse Thursday at 10 a.m.

Frank E. Moss, Democratic incumbent, will clash with Dr. Ernest L. Wilkinson, Republican candidate, former president of BYU.

THE DEBATE is being sponsored by the BYU Debate Committee, the Student Academic Emphasis Committee, and the Forum Committee.

Dr. Keith Oleen, chairman of the Debate Committee, said each speaker will make a major statement for 13 minutes. The first speaker will then be given eight minutes for rebuttal and the second speaker five minutes for rebuttal.

SENATOR MOSS was elected to the U. S. Senate in 1958. He is a graduate of the University of Utah and George Washington University Law School. He has served as an attorney for the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission, Salt Lake City judge, Salt Lake County attorney. He is a colonel in the Air Force Reserve.

DR. WILKINSON resigned as president of BYU in January to enter the senate race. He won the primary election last August. Before coming to BYU as president in 1950, he headed a law office in Washington, D. C., and obtained for the Ute Indians the largest judgments ever awarded by the U. S. Court of Claims.

He was graduated from BYU, George Washington Law School, and Harvard University. He formerly was a member of a law firm headed by Hon. Charles Evans Hughes.

Former president of BYU, Dr. Ernest L. Wilkinson and Sen. Frank E. Moss will debate Thursday in Fieldhouse.

Sixty-three Candidates; Fifteen To Reach Finals

Fifteen finalists will be chosen from sixty-three applicants for Homecoming Queen Wednesday during the second night of judging, a semi-formal reception will be held in Ballrooms 3 and 4 where the judging will take place.

THE CANDIDATES will introduce themselves before the judges and audience of family and friends. They will tell their home town, major, and minor, and later in the evening the girls will talk informally with each of the judges.

Mrs. Margaret R. Jackson, first counselor of the YWMIA Presidency of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will speak at the reception on "Inner Beauty."

THE TELEPHONE will be ringing before midnight to notify the fifteen youn ladies chosen to enter the finals.

Judging for the honored title began Monday night when each of the hopefuls was interviewed by ten judges. The girls were rated according to their beauty and poise, responses to questions, and reaction under pressure.

MEMBERS of the contest committee include Linda McLachlan, Susan Brinton, Mary Beth Arbon, Delbert Tingey, and Lloyd Pendleton, chairman.

In giving his instructions to the judges, Mr. Pendleton pointed out that the girl chosen to reign over the Homecoming activities will not only represent the high ideals of Brigham Young University and her alumni, but also the standards of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Therefore, the 1964 Homecoming Queen must have beauty of character as well as physical attractiveness.

Peronist Mob Stops Parade; DeGaulle Safe

CORDOBA, AGENTINA, (AP)- A mob of 3,000 Peronist demonstrators closed around a car carrying President Charles De Gaulle of France and President Arturo Illia of Argentina Tuesday and broke up their motorcade.

SIXTEEN PERSONS WERE wounded in the rock-and-gun melee that followed as police charged at the crowd.

The wives of the two presidents, together in another car, were in peril for a time.

The mob spared De Gaulle, target of asasins of previous occasions in Europe, was untouched in the incident provoked by demonstrators apparently friendly to Illia but hostile to Illia.

Illia received a scratch on one hand from broken glass of the presidential car, a correspondent for La Nacion of Buenos Aires reported.

Police, using tear gas bombs, drove an opening in the mob and the car sped on the short distance remaining to a farewell luncheon at the closed out De Gaulle's four day visit to Argentina.

Shortly afterward he flew to Paraguay from the industrial hotbed of Pre and Anti-Peronism where the 1955 revolt that overthrew Dictator Juan Peron was born. De Gaulle arrived in Paraguay at 4:42 p.m. EST.

The mob apparently sought De Gaulle's support for the return of Juan Peron, now living in Spanish exile, overthrew and ousted nine years ago but has a lingering influence in Argentina.

Freshmen Vote Thursday, Friday In Seven Places

Voting for freshman elections will take place Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at seven different locations Booths will be at the Smith Family Living Center, Knight Building, and the Mc-Kay Bldg.

BOOTHS WILL also be located at the Clark Library, West Court of the Y Center, Cannon Center, and the Eyring Science Center.

There were 47 nominated candidates this year for the voting for President, nine for Vice President, eight for Secretary and fifteen for Freshman Senator.

"I WOULD LIKE to express my appreciation to the Freshman candidates for their enthusiastic support of this election and I hope this enthusiasm leaks out to the whole freshman class in the coming election," said Mary Ann Black, chairman.

Campaign cards must be presented before obtaining a ballot and the ballot must be filled out with an IBM pencil, which is provided, or your vote will not be counted.

At Devotional ...

Convert: Change Character Says Apostle To Students

"To convince is to overwhelm with arguments and reasons; to convert is to change the character and attitude of the person," was an idea presented by Elder Theodore M. Burton, Assistant to the Council of the Twelve, at Tuesday's Devotional.

ADDRESSING a full house of BYU students and faculty members in the Smith Fieldhouse, Elder Burton distributed his audience to , , "Become converted and keep the law, not because you have to, but because you want to."

"My opinion is that the spirit of conversion—to keep the law because you have the desire to do so," he said.

ELDER BURTON cited as an example, Peter the Fisherman, who, thru the miracles and works of Jesus, could see the divinity in Him. Even so, Peter denied the Christ three times in one "I feel that this was the beginning of the conversion of Peter. I believe before this time he lacked humility, and humility is the only way a man can grow," stated the speaker.

ELDER BURTON said that a man must build his personal philosophy on concrete facts. "Don't loose his mind—he needs a reference point from which to build and that from which he has the faith of the living God.

He stated that we are born in an age torn of stability and are faced with a multitude of threats and dangers. "The whole purpose of life is to test us to see if we have caught the idea of 'divinity'."

Meet Slated For Hopefuls Of Awards

Deadline dates for graduate award applications for 1965-66 are immediately ahead.

THE ANNUAL meeting of all Juniors and Seniors with grade point averages of 3.5 or higher will be held Wed. at 4:10 p.m. in the multipurpose area of the Smith Living Center Building.

Every student who expects to apply for any type of award should be in attendance at this meeting. Members of the Faculty Committee on Graduate Awards will explain the major awards available for the coming year at BYU and other universities in the United States and abroad.

SPECIFIC qualifications for receiving these awards also will be discussed.

Dean Wesley P. Lloyd, dean of Graduate Studies said: "Graduate training in 1965 spotlights students of exceptional academic ability. Grade point average alone does not win an award. The preparation of the application is a significant factor. In the meeting, Professor Robert Thomas will treat the subject 'How To Win An Award'."

IT IS URGENT that Seniors with excellent grade points be in attendance at this meeting.

Juniors with grade points of 3.5 or higher are also welcome and encourage to attend.

House Decoration Blanks Available

Applications for the Homecoming House Decoration contest may be picked up in 132 Y Center Tuesday until the return deadline on October 15 at noon according to Buddy Wallace, chairman of the event.

Grand prize will be $100 and honorable mention will be given to the three winners. They will be judged on originality, beauty, and theme presentation.

President's Cabinet Plans

Yesterday the ASBYU President's Cabinet met for the first time during the 1964-65 school year.

The cabinet is made up of representatives from 21 organizations and executive offices on the BYU campus. It is designed to represent the voice of the studentbody as expressed through the various delegates.

At the Tuesday meeting, ASBYU President Bruce Olsen asked members of the cabinet to report on their organizations and outline tentative plans for the activities scheduled during the coming year.

A number of the officers expressed ideas and plans for their organizations. Several worthwhile plans have already been formulated and initiation activities have already been put into motion.

These officers have enormous plans, talent and enthusiasm. They are all interested in making student government of worth to the studentbody.

The plans look great ,the enthusiasm is high, but the question remains: Can this group of student officers effectively put into action the ideas and plans which have already been decided upon?

If they can, students can look forward to a great year. If not, students will continue to carry the impression that student leaders are necessary do-nothings.

Genealogical Researchers Offered Class

The General College is offering a two-year program in Genealogical Research, according to Ernest C. Jeppsen, Dean of the General College.

As a basic course, "Research Procedures" is taught in the Religion department. The advanced courses include "American Research," "English and Welsh Research," and "Danish Research."

As the demand increases, the General College plans to offer genealogical courses in Scottish, Irish, German, Dutch, Norwegian, and Mexican research.

Norman E. Wright, program head, David Pratt of the Genealogical Society and J. Grant Stevenson of the College of Religion are teaching the courses.

Osteopath Association Offers Student Award

The Auxiliary to the American Osteopathic Association will award up to twenty $1300 scholarships to students entering osteopathics colleges in the fall of 1965, it was announced by Mrs. Clifford W. Millard, AAOA scholarship chairman.

THE SCHOLARSHIPS will be awarded on the basis of scholastic standing, financial need, professional motivation and aptitude and moral character.

Applicants must be citizens of the U.S. and Canada and must have been admitted to one of the five osteopathic colleges.

The $1500 will be paid directly to the selected college in two installments of $750 each for years enrolled.

RENEWAL OF the scholar for the second year is depen on the maintenance of satis ory work and financial need, Millard said.

Deadline for submitting a cations is May 1, 1965. All dents interested in applying this award should see the U uate Awards Secretary, 1 ASB).

Plot of Berlin Escape Revealed; Five Refuse Chance At Freedom

by George Boultwood
Associated Press Writer

BERLIN (AP)-Organizers of the escape of 57 persons from East Berlin said Tuesday they worked for nearly six months under perilous conditions to dig a tunnel under the red wall. Seven times one tunnelier shot it out with East Berlin guards when the entrance was unexpectedly discovered.

They said they suspect their tunnel was betrayed to the Communist Secret Police. Armed Red Guards arrived on the scene early Monday just too late to stop the last refugee escaping.

Four students who were helping the refugees into the tunnel also escaped after one stopped and shot at the guards and said he heard a moan.

AN EAST GERMAN Army Sergeant was killed and the East German Defense Ministry charged the sergeant was murdered by "Armed Bandits" and the incident might affect a new agreement to let West Berliners visit East Berlin. West Berlin newspapers speculated that he was cut down by the wild shooting of his own comrades.

The organizers, who declined to be identified for security reasons, said they originally intended to bring out 60 people, mostly relatives of the tunnelers.

Five refused to come at the last minute. Two other men, strangers to the tunnelers, were taken along at the last minute after a chance meeting on the street with one of their Counters in East Berlin. "We've got a tunnel. Do you want to escape?" The Courier said.

THAT WOULD be wonderful,"

the man replied."Just wait until I get my friend." He hauled his friend out of bed—and they were among those who crawled through to the West Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The tunnel was bored from a vacant bakery on Bernauer Strasse, under the street, under the 300 foot wide prohibited zone on the Communist side of the wall and into the courtyard of a house. It was about 450 feet long and about 10 feet below the surface at its lowest point. Dirt was hauled back and dumped in empty apartments above the bakery.

Earthquake Rocks Turkey Villages; 10 Persons Dead

ISTANBUL, TURKEY, (AP)- A sharp series of earthquakes shook Istanbul and a wide area of Northwestern Turkey Tuesday and killed at least 10 persons.

The victims were in three villages of Balikesir Province, Southwest of Istanbul.

Istanbul Observatory placed the epicenter of the quake 80 miles Southwest of Istanbul.

FIVE VILLAGES of the Manyas District of Balikesir Province apparently took the brunt of the shocks.

Radio Ankara said four persons died at Tuluc village, four at Kirkican and two at Boruleaghac, all three in Manyas District.

Two vertical shocks rocked Istanbul but there were no casualties or damage in this metropolis of million.

Union Fees Drained In Hoffa Suit

WASHINGTON, (AP) - The Teamster Union says it's treasury may be virtually drained fighting a suit by members to recover huge legal fees it spent to defend President James R. Hoffa and other Union Officials in criminal cases.

But the union is insisting that it be named a defendant along with Hoffa and 18 other top officials in the Federal Court Civil Suit filed by a group of rank and file Teamsters.

The Union filed papers saying the suit by six Philadelphia Teamsters, plus the request of about 500 others to join the suit, raises "the distinct probability that the funds of the international will be substantially depleted by such actions."

The union argued the plaintiffs could be awarded legal fees from union funds.

At the same time, Hoffa's Vice President Harold Gibbons and Secretary-Treasurer John F. English admitted authorizing payment of Union Funds for legal fees in criminal cases, but contended it was legal.

They did not specify how much money has been spent on Legal Fees, but attorneys for the rank and file group estimate it at, at least $1 million.

Hoffa, in his answer to the Civil Suit, said no funds have been spent on legal fees since last April 23.

He announced in the midst of his recent Chicago Fraud Trial that he would stop drawing on Union Money to pay his court and lawyers' costs. This was after the issue created a dispute within the Union's Ruling Executive Board.

'Anne Frank' Film Opens Wednesday

Keeping up with the growth of the campus, University Cinema is now being shown Wednesday through Friday in room 184 of the Jesse Knight Building.

The University Cinema Program is for the more serious type of movie goer who is interested in classical films with a little deeper meaning than mere entertainment.

This week's University Cinema presentation is in Cinemascope, "The Diary of Anne Frank."

"THE DIARY of Anne Frank," is one of the most affecting human documents of the times. Based on the diary of a young Jewish girl before she was killed in a Nazi concentration camp.

Written during the two years of hiding in a Amsterdam attic, her diary faithfully records the daily routine, alarms, quarrels, reconciliation, and mutual comfort of eight frightened people.

SHOW TIME is 4:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Underdog Cougars Sharpen Fangs, Whet Appetite For Tough Ram Show

Coach Tommy Hudspeth's Cougars, who have felt the full impact of three powerful clubs on successive weekends, may encounter a fourth this weekend in the form of Colorado State.

ORDINARILY, THE RAMS wouldn't be rated with the likes of BYU's past opponents of the '64 season. But the strong showing by the Rams, especially on defense, against the Air Force Saturday indicates Saturday night's contest in Fort Collins won't provide a let-up.

Of the three teams the Cougars have met so far this season, two (Oregon and Arizona) are undefeated. The third, New Mexico, has a 2-1 record.

AND IT MAY be that the Rams, as Hudspeth and Co. fear, are a good deal tougher than the critics give them credit for. In fact, BYU will be in the underdog role for the fourth consecutive weekend.

BYU was hoping for some kind of an upset in the stadium inaugural game with New Mexico. Now they may have trouble bouncing back after seeing their 14-12 halftime lead melt away in the second half under the steady pounding of the Lobo's quick-striking ground game.

"I THOUGHT WE played good football in the first half," said Hudspeth of the Y's loss to New Mexico, "but they took it away from us in the second half. Their rushing was just too much for us; they just plain out-played us."

There is plenty of evidence that would indicate the Rams are a much stronger club than the team that dropped a close 20-24 decision to the Cougars last year in Provo.

LAST YEAR, FOR instance, CSU was victim to a 0-69 rout by Air Force. This year only one touchdown separated the two teams. The Falcons took a 14-6 win last Saturday in a game televised regionally.

Said Coach Glen Tuckett who scouted the Rams Saturday at Colorado Springs: "They were very impressive on defense, and (Jess) Willis and (Norm) Burkett have the kind of speed that will give us fits."

Yanks Choose Ford To Face Sadecki, Cards

The St. Louis Cardinals, final winners in the unbelievable National League pennant race, will send Ray Sadecki, a 23-year old lefty, against Whitey Ford, the New York Yankees cagey veteran, in the opening game of the World Series Wednesday at St. Louis.

FORD'S 22 series starts are enough for the odds-makers to rate the Yanks 17-10 favorites to take it all and 5-5 favorites in the opener.

The series schedule, which calls for a day off for travel after the second and fifth games, permits the first-game pitchers to make three starts if it goes the seven-game limit.

AFTER SADECKI, who is a 20-game-winner, Cardinal manager, Johnny Keane, will use Bob Gibson and Curt Simmons as his big guns on the mound.

Yankee manager Yogi Berra will use rookie sensation Mel Stottlemyre and Jim Bouton in rotation after Ford's start.

SADECKI WILL TOTE a tremendous burden Wednesday as he was knocked out of the box by the happy-go-sloppy New York Mets last Saturday.

Intramural Play Begins

Every student involved in intramural activities is urged by Jay Naylor, Director of Intramurals, to check the bulletin boards for schedules and times of the events.

EACH YEAR MANY teams and individuals are eliminated because of failure to keep informed on dates and times of their own contests.

Intramural tennis singles, horseshoes, and flag football begins today at 5:30 p.m. Play will extend to Saturday this year due to the prodigious increase in entries.

Bulletin boards are located at the Smith Fieldhouse, in Cannon Center, and at the top of the stairs near the Y Bell. For those unable to find their own schedule should call Jay Naylor at 2460.
